CLUB NOTES

Since the last issue of the programme, the Club has suffered a grievous blow by the death of the Chairman, Mr. J. H. Ingham, at the early age of 58.

The late Bert Ingham served the Club well over a period of almost twenty years as Director, Vice-Chairman and latterly as Chairman and the Directorate would like to place on record their appreciation of his loyal services on behalf of the Club. He will be very much missed by all at Deepdale.

Mr. Allan Harrison has been appointed Chairman and Mr. Bill Mercer, Vice-Chairman, and we wish them well in their new appointments.

As required by the Company's Articles, the number of Directors has been brought up to nine by the co-option to the Directorate of Mr. Tom Charnley. Mr. Charnley, Secretary of the Central League and a former member of the Staff of the Football League, is a man of great knowledge of the administrative side of the game who should bring a wealth of experience to the Board. We wish him a long and happy association with the Club.

For to-day's F.A. Cup 5th Round Tie, we welcome Carlisle United to Deepdale. Though Carlisle is situate some 90 miles from Preston, there is a "Derby" atmosphere about the game which should provide excitement both on and off the field. They should have a following from Carlisle of about 9,000 supporters, so they should not be lacking in vocal encouragement.

Carlisle are comparative newcomers to Senior Football in this country. They are having an excellent season and are second in the Fourth Division having scored 78 League goals. Details of their playing staff are given elsewhere in this programme and one who will be well known to Deepdale fans is Sammy Taylor.

Both teams will be anxious to make progress in the Cup despite the necessity to keep up with the leaders in their respective promotion efforts and we hope that to-day's game will be worthy of the capacity attendance present.

On Monday evening next, the 17th inst., kick-off at 7-30 p.m., we have a provisional League match at Deepdale with Derby County. In the event of course of no definite conclusion being reached in to-day's Cup Tie, the Derby County match will need to be further postponed.

Should a replay be necessary, this will be at Carlisle on Tuesday evening next, the 18th inst., kick-off at 7-30 p.m. The match will be all ticket, prices as under :

Ground ...	...	3/- (juveniles 1/6)
Paddocks	...	4/- (juveniles 2/-)
Stands ...	...	7/- and 8/-

There will be plenty of tickets available for Ground and Paddocks, but our allocation of some 200 Stand tickets will satisfy less than one in seven of our own Stand Season Ticket holders, so the problem of distribution is going to be difficult.

Ticket sales will be to-morrow, Sunday, from the Deepdale Road side of the Ground. In view of the shortage of Stand tickets these will be issued on the basis of "first come, first served" from the West Stand office to STAND SEASON TICKET HOLDERS ONLY.

GROUND AND PADDOCK SEASON TICKET HOLDERS may obtain tickets at Stile 10, Town End turnstiles.

NON SEASON TICKET HOLDERS may obtain tickets from Stiles 5, 6 and 7 at the Town End turnstiles. ONE PER PERSON.

Ticket sales will be from 10 to 12 noon and 2 to 4 p.m., or until such time as tickets are disposed of.

WEEKLY DRAW AGENTS paying-in at Club Night last Friday were given the chance to purchase tickets for to-day's Cup Tie with Carlisle United. The remainder were distributed to Club members present at the night.

MANY SUPPORTERS who travelled to Huddersfield last week remarked on the excellence of the meal on the return journey. It was indeed a compliment to the restaurant concerned who had prepared the meal in a very short time. The original booking was cancelled at 9.30 a.m. on Saturday morning and many hectic minutes were spent on the telephone arranging a replacement.

SUPPORTERS who already have a personal interest should note that the draw for the free trip to Sunderland will be held at Club Night on Friday, 13th March. Those who do not have tickets are asked to enquire in the Press Room at any Friday evening Club Night.

HUGHIE NEIL (Full back). In his third season at Brunton Park having joined the Club in June, 1961, after spells with Falkirk, Rangers and St. Johnstone. TERRY CALDWELL (Full back). Signed in July, 1961, from Leeds United after previous service with Huddersfield Town. A strong and forceful player and a good turn of speed. Has also played in emergency at centre half. Born Wakefield.

RON THOMPSON (Wing half). Born Carlisle. Was three years as an amateur before turning professional in 1951. The Club's longest serving player. Represented the 3rd Division (North) in 1958.
